CONTRACT NUMBER:

BACKGROUND AND SUMMARY:

The Children and Youth Commission (CYC) was formed by resolution and is charged by the City of Santa Fe, through ordinance, with surveying and assessing the needs of the children and youth within the City of Santa Fe, identifying and recommending to the governing body legislation, policies and programs that promote the healthy development of young people, determining priorities for program development, advocating in the community on behalf of children and youth, and planning short and long range improvements for young people, from birth through the age of twenty one (21).

In March of 2026, the Youth and Family Services Division in collaboration with the CYC released RFP FY26-HSRFP-079: Children and Youth Commission 3 Year Grant Cycle, seeking proposals for the Children and Youth Commission Fund in alignment with the identified funding priority areas of the FY27-29 strategic plan.

Each proposal was evaluated by three members of the evaluation committee and an average of the three scores was taken and ranked accordingly. These rankings were then provided to the CYC to guide funding recommendations.

To ensure funding was distributed across priority areas, the Commission grouped proposals by area and identified the top ranked proposals within each category for funding consideration. This resulted in a total of 20 contracts being awarded to deliver services that promote the healthy development of children and youth.

Hi Travis!

Just checking in to see if you've heard anything from Marcos. We were hoping to release the RFA on Friday, but should we shift to an RFP? I can draft one pretty quickly in OpenGov but thought I'd check in before I start anything.

Dear Travis:

So the idea is that Children Youth and Family Services wants to give away money (grants) to non-profits? This probably isn't a procurement, if it is a grant. However, it does sound like a donation, which they cannot do unless an exception applies. Briefly the exceptions to the anti-donation clause are:

1. care and maintenance of sick and indigent persons;
2. veterans' scholarship program for Vietnam conflict veterans;
3. loans to students of the healing arts;
4. Econmic development; and
5. Affordable housing.

I don't see these grants fitting into any of these exceptions. Therefore, the City would have to receive goods or service to pay non-profits.

Hi Marcos,

Youth and Families wishes to process an RFA to give out grants. Please see below for context. Do you agree that the proposed projects fall outside procurement?

Thanks,

Travis

Subject: Determination Request- Children and Youth Commission Multi-Year Grants

Good morning Travis,

The Youth and Family Services Division respectfully requests a determination for the Children and Youth Commission Multi-Year Grants. Below is the information for the funding.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH COMMISSION (AGES 0-21)

MISSION

We advocate for and provide resources to organizations and community projects. Together we creatively address barriers that result in positive outcomes by engaging children, youth, and families in Santa Fe.

Funding for the Children and Youth Commission Fund comes from a percentage of the City's share of the state gross receipts tax (GRT) and is administered to fund local nonprofits (funding amount varies due to GRT fluctuations). The commission is dedicated to enhancing community services, expanding equitable access, and fostering sustainable growth in program effectiveness by allocating funding to support local community programs that promote the healthy development of children and youth, ages birth to twenty-one (21).
